

ಮಾಡಿರತಕ್ಕ ವಿಷಯವಾಗಿದೆ, ಇದು ನೇರವಾಗಿ 67-68ನೇ ಇಸವಿ ರಾಜ್ಯ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ನೀತಿಗೆ ಸಂಬಂಧಪಟ್ಟ ವಿಚಾರವಾಗಿದೆ, ಇದನ್ನು ಮೊದಲು ಸಭೆಯ ಮುಂದೆ ಹೇಳುವುದನ್ನು ಬಿಟ್ಟು ಹೊರಗಡೆ ಹೇಳಿರುವುದು ಸಭೆಯ ನಿಯಮೋಲ್ಲಂಘನೆ ಮಾಡಿದಂತಾಗಿದೆ ಎಂದು ಹೇಳುತ್ತೇನೆ.

Sri S. R. KANTHI.—Sir, there is no breach of privilege as such. All this is not relevant at all. It arose on account of the point raised by my hon. friend.

Sri K. H. RANGANATH.—Sri Devaraj Urs has referred to indefinite rules. They have said time and again in this House that they have no money to nationalise the routes. Now they suddenly come and say that they are going to nationalise all the routes.

Sri S. R. KANTHI.—Sir, this question has arisen only as a breach of privilege.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—Sir, Sri Devaraj Urs has said that all the routes are going to be nationalised.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Finally, as we are parting, let us part with a pleasant odour in the mouth and a sweet smell in the nostrill. It was found fault with me that I am allowing a zero hour to develop. Not only the point was raised, but it was debated upon in elaborate details. Anyhow this has happened. Let it not happen again. I will give the Ruling for what is called, Point of Order, or breach of privilege, or representation or clarification. I have said, not once, in the morning today also so far as some statement said to have been made by the Chief Minister in Mangalore about Kasargod matter, I pointed out a rule as to what exactly the position in practice and parliamentary law is, and Sri K. H. Ranganath is not unaware of it. I am surprised at this. I may first quote my predecessors name, the most learned person, the Hon'ble Speaker of that time, who ruled during December 1958 that a policy statement made outside the House, when the House is in Session, is not a breach of privilege, but may be a breach of courtesy. On 17th December 1959, the Lok Sabha ruled like that, on 7th March 1963, I ruled like that and again on 20th December 1963, the same ruling was given. If, in spite of all that, objection is raised and a debate is developed, what can I say? It has been there all along.
